1.

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 19-1-1(b) and the implementing order of the Court executed on the 8th day of February, 2007, this Standing Order binds the parties in the above-styled action, their agents, servants, employees, and all other persons acting in concert with such parties.

2.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from unilaterally causing or permitting the minor child(ren) of the parties to be removed from the jurisdiction of this Court without permission of the Court, except in an emergency affecting the health, safety, or welfare of the child(ren) which has been created by the other party to the action.

3.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from doing, or attempting to do, or threatening to do, any act which injures, maltreats, vilifies, molests, or harasses, or which may, upon judicial determination, constitute threats, harassment, or stalking the adverse party or the child(ren) of the parties or any act which constitutes a violation of other civil or criminal laws of this state.

4.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from selling, encumbering, trading, contracting to sell, or otherwise disposing of or removing from the jurisdiction of this Court, without the permission of the Court, any of the property belonging to the parties except in the ordinary course of business or except in an emergency which has been created by the other party to the action.

5.

Parties to domestic relations actions involving minor children are required by Internal Operating Procedure 2000-31 to attend a seminar for divorcing parents within 31 days of service of the original complaint upon the defendant. Failure to complete the seminar in a timely manner may subject the party to contempt or other sanctions, may delay any temporary hearings or mediation sessions, and may delay the granting of a final decree of divorce.

6.

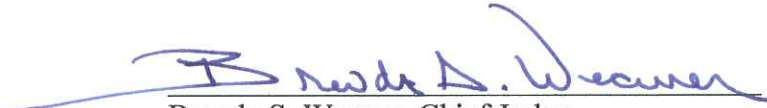

Parties are to complete and file a domestic relations financial affidavit, as required by Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2 as amended. Failure of any party to furnish the affidavit, in the discretion of the court, may subject the offending party to the penalties of contempt and result in continuance of the hearing until such time as the required affidavit is furnished.

7.

Parties shall comply with Internal Operating Procedure 2007-02-Child Support Worksheet, Schedules and Financial Affidavit Standing Order and Internal Operating Procedure 2007-03-Consolidated Domestic Relations Pretrial Order and any other Internal Operating Procedures applicable to Domestic Relations actions. It is the responsibility of the parties to comply with all applicable state statutes, Uniform Superior Court Rules and Internal Operating
